P. T. BARNUM'S GREAT ROMAN HIPPODROME.

The largest amusement building ever constructed, occupying the entire block, bounded by Fourth and Madison avenues and Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh streets. Grand orchestra, orchestra chairs, balcony chairs, family circle and gallery thronged afternoon and evening with an enthusiastic audience, composed of the best cut zens of the metropolis and adjacent suburbs.

This truly moral and instructive entertainment receive the praise and patronage of the clergy, our municipa authorities, merchane, editors, lawyers, bankers, me chanics, and the great and good of all nations. The gorgeous pageant—the CONGRESS OF MON-ARUHS—is alone produced at a cost of $50,000, and introduces in one grand procession 1,500 men. women and children, horses, poines and trained animals. It a sudisplays upon glided chariots and prancing chargers representatives of the sovereigns of each and every civilized nation upon the globe.

The intensely exciting programme of Roman Charlot and standing Races, Burdle and Flat Races, Jockey Races, Buxlean 1 sees, Liberty Races, Elephant, Pony, Monkey, Camel and Donkey Races, Wheelbarrow and Sack Races are received affermon and evening with tundituous applicates. The laughable finale—DONNY-ROOK FAIR and the LANGSHIRE BACES—introduces the entire strength of the company, presenting a medley of entertainment characteristic of the national sports of Ireland.
